

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

December 9, 2009

Physician Assistant Joins High Point Orthopaedics and Sports Medicine

High Point, NC — Cornerstone Health Care announces that Certified Physician Assistant Eric Phillips has joined High Point Orthopaedics and Sports Medicine. Mr. Phillips completed his undergraduate studies at the University of Georgia in Athens and earned a Master of Science in Public Health at the School of Public Health and Tropical Medicine of Tulane University in New Orleans, LA. He also earned a Master of Science in Physician Assistant Studies at South University in Savannah, GA. Mr. Phillips has extensive experience providing sports medicine care to college level athletes, and prior to joining Cornerstone, served as a physician assistant at West Salem Clinic, a family practice office in Salem, OR.

High Point Orthopaedics and Sports Medicine is located at 611 Lindsay Street, Suite 200, in High Point, and will open a second office in March 2010 in the new Premier Medical Plaza building at the corner of Wendover Avenue and Premier Drive in north High Point. The practice is accepting new patients and appointments may be made by calling 336 802-2250.