Cardiologist Joins Cornerstone Health Care

High Point, NC — Cornerstone Health Care announced that Kurt R. Daniel, DO, has joined Carolina Cardiology Cornerstone. Dr. Daniel has special expertise in cardiac catheterization and stenting using the radial (wrist) artery. He is also skilled in peripheral artery interventions, ASO/PFO closure and aortic valvuloplasty. Dr. Daniel completed his undergraduate studies at Trinity University in San Antonio, TX. He was awarded his Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine Degree, by Oklahoma State University of Osteopathic Medicine, where he graduated first in his class. Dr. Daniel earned a Master of Science at the Wake Forest University School of Medicine in Health Sciences Research. He served as Assistant Chief of Medicine and Chief Resident after completion of his internal medicine residency at Wake Forest University – North Carolina Baptist Medical Center, where he also completed a four-year cardiology fellowship and an interventional cardiology fellowship. He is board certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine in Internal Medicine and Cardiovascular Disease.

Carolina Cardiology Cornerstone has twenty cardiologists who treat patients with a wide range of heart conditions from six offices – at 306 Westwood Avenue, Suite 401 in High Point and the Premier Medical Plaza building in north High Point, and at two locations in Asheboro, and one each in Lexington and Thomasville.

Dr. Daniel will treat patients at the High Point and Lexington offices.
